MEN WHOM BASEBALL HAS MADE RICH

Big-Hearted Charles Comiskey, the Hal Chase of the '80's, Who Owns the White Sox and Is Regarded as the Napoleon of the American League. Rich Enough to Be Satisfied.

Charles Comiskey began playing ball at Dubuque, Ia., in 1879, and today he is one of the most powerful individuals in the American league. He has made a fortune of at least six, if not seven, figures, and he made it in baseball.

It was Comiskey, when owner of the St. Paul club in the Western league, who placed a club in Chicago without asking the National league's permission, and when that body threatened war "Commy" and his gang twirled their blackthorns, shouted "Hurroo" and waded in.

So adept did they prove at wading that when the smoke cleared away, what was left of the old league was a terribly sick woman, while the American league band continued to play "Garry Owen," the league leaders being Comiskey, Collins, McGraw, Mack, McAleer, Armour, Loftus and Barrow, was excused enough for the air.

Comiskey's career has been a steady advance. He went from Dubuque to St. Louis and first-baseman for the "Browns" owned by Chris Von Der Ahe. He revolutionized the position. In 1887 he became captain and manager of the team and began winning American association pennants. He next went to Cincinnati as manager and later bought the St. Paul franchise, developed the American league from the Western and is today one of the wealthiest men in the game.

Comiskey would have more money than he has if he wasn't so good to so many old friends. It was "Com my" who made comfortable the last days of Von Der Ahe, and if his private check book could be examined it would show that his charity runs to thousands a year.

Comiskey is a "good spender". He entertains handsomely; he takes his White Sox on transcontinental training trips in a private train and does everything upon a large scale. His heart is so big that he is never happier than when making it possible for some one to have a good time.

Cheney won the 2:07 trot and Strathmore in the 2:15 pace had little opposition.

The 2:16 trot, carded for Monday, was postponed until some time later in the week.

SOX OUTBATTED BUT WIN CONTEST

Get Only Four Hits in Game With Washington But Romp Home With a Five to Three Victory.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 5.—The Chicago White Sox lived up to their reputation as "hitless wonders" here Monday when they defeated Washington in the first of a four-game series five to three. The visitors were outbatted more than two to one, but their hits, coupled with Washington's misplays and two bases on balls by Engel, who started for Washington, gave them a lead which Washington could not overcome.

Cloutie went in when play was resumed and with brilliant support held Washington to one run during the remainder of the game.

ERROR BY COBB LETS NEW YORK WIN GAME

NEW YORK, Aug. 5.—New York won the first game of the series from Detroit by a score of six to four. Both teams hit hard but Fisher kept the visitors' hits scattered. New York threw away many chances to score by poor base running, but a muff by Cobb enabled them to win in the seventh, when they scored five runs, four of them coming in after Cobb's muff which should have retired the side.

Willett started the game for Detroit but was knocked out of the box in the seventh inning, during New York's rally. Dubuc relieved him and when Cobb made his muff Knight, Cree and Midkiff landed on him for hits. The hitting of Knight, Cree and Crawford featured. Bush was put out of the game in the seventh inning for protesting to a decision. The game was interrupted 30 minutes in the fourth inning by a shower.

BRING STEWART BACK TO CUBS

Murphy Thinks Swatter He Farmed Out to Springfield is Ripe for Big League.

Charles "Kid" Stewart, former member of the Springfield club, was made a full fledged member of the Chicago Cubs Monday. For the past three weeks Stewart has been playing with the Indianapolis tribe of the American association, having been taken there from the home of the Reapers by Owner Sol Myer of both clubs.

Early last spring Stewart, who was a semi-pro in Chicago, was picked up by Murphy, boss of the Cubs. Murphy allowed the Indians to take him but kept the strings tied to him. After the first road trip of the tribe, Stewart was sent to Springfield for seasoning. There he developed into one of the leading hitters of the Central, part of the time heading the list.

About three weeks ago Manager Kelley had hard up for a heavy hitting outfielder and Stewart was recalled. While the kid's fielding work has not been of the best, he continued his good stick work and Murphy heard of this. He then exercised his right to the young player and Stewart was sent to Chicago.

Murphy owns Wheeler of the Terriers, who is now leading the league with the bat. He has offered Wheeler to the Indians and it is up to Manager Kelley to decide whether or not he will become a big chief in the tribe. Wheeler is batting around .355. Kelley is now spending a few days scouting around the Central in search of some likely material for the lowly Indians. Kelley is out to take a look at Pitcher Wetzel and Infielder Keller of the Reapers. They may be sent to Indianapolis.
